

Vacancy Notice

Job Title:	Support/Roll Out Engineer
Location:	Yeovil
Status:	Open
Project:	Product Insertion Team
Business Area:	Sustainment Systems
Candidate Type:	Contract/Perm
Grade Range:	Associate – Adv Career (Depending on skills/experience)
Required Date:	July/August 2008

Key Tasks

Sustainment Systems products Sapphire, Information Centre, Decision Support Centre and Trilogi viewer which enable Fleet maintenance and management of air platforms is being offered as part of the BAES L&IS eCapability offering. Through various CLS contracts BAE Systems will be contracted to undertake the maintenance at Forward and Depth environments where the Sustainment systems products will be utilised.

The Product Insertion Team will be responsible for the insertion of Sustainment Systems products into specific aircraft programs. The main areas of responsibility will include Initial Data Management, Hardware build and configuration, Training, Validation/Acceptance/Approval, Initial On Site support, Berthing and Reference Data management.

Reporting to the Insertion Manager this role will concentrate on the Hardware build and configuration, Validation/Acceptance/Approval and Initial On Site support of Sapphire and Information Centre to support the maintenance of various aircraft platforms. However this role will also extend to supporting all areas of insertion mentioned above. This role will involve travel over extended periods.

This is a key role in supporting the companies software products as they progresses into major opportunities on fixed wing platforms (Hawk, Nimrod MRA4, Harrier and Tornado).

Essential Skills and Experience

- Strong Understanding of Sapphire.
- Strong Understanding of MoD aircraft maintenance environment (methods of working and a/c engineering)
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Must be Flexible and be prepared to work outside of normal office hours
- Must be proactive and able to work on own initiative
- Must be willing to travel away for extended periods 1+ months

Desirable Skills and Experience

- Software/Test defect reporting
- Understanding of Oracle RDBS